Approved Environmental and Sustainable Policy, Ethics & History Courses

Highlighted courses offered Fall 2022

ARC 327R Urban Transportation Policy/Planning

HIS 350R Environmental History of N. America

PHL 325D Environmental Ethics/Philosophy[2]

SOC 321K Environmental Sociology

SOC 323S Building the Sustainable City

GRG 321L Archeol of Climate Change[3]

GRG 322D Human Health/Environment [2,3]

GRG 324E Apps/Ethics Digtl Spatial Tech

GRG 331K Nature, Society, and Adaptation

GRG 334 Conservation, Resources & Technology

GRG 334E Children's Environmental Health

GRG 336C National Parks/Protected Areas

GRG 339K Environment, Development & Food Production

GRG 340D Political Ecology

GRG 342C Sustainable Development

GRG 344K Global Food, Farming & Hunger

GRG 356 pre-approved topics only:

- Environmental Health
- Water Resources in Latin America[2]

GRG 356C Geo-Archaeology & Envir. History

GRG 356T pre-approved topics only:

- Farming, Food & Global Hunger
- Global Health, Local Health

MNS 367K Human Exploration & Exploitation of the Sea[1]

BIO 337 Renewable Resources: Envir/Future

Study Abroad Options:

GRG 368D Envir-Cultural Dynamics in Botswana – Botswana

BIO 337 Land Use Issues in Rainforest Conservation – Costa Rica

GRG 323K S. America: Nature, Society & Sustainability – Ecuador

J 346F Reporting on our Changing Environment – Australia

---

[1] On the 2010-2012 and 2012-2014 catalogs, MNS 367K is approved to satisfy the EVS Climates and Oceans requirement; beginning on the 2014-2016 catalog, MNS 367K was moved to count toward the EVS Environmental and Sustainable Policy, Ethics and History requirement.

[2] These courses are crosslisted with another section/course number. Either course will work to fulfill this requirement. PHL 325D previously listed as PHL 325C, only one may be counted.

[3] Only one of these may be counted: GRG 356T Human Health and the Environment or GRG 322D Human Health/Environment; GRG GRG 321L or 356T Archeol of Climate Change; GRG 324E or GRG 356T Apps/Ethics Digtl Spatial Tech