Living Wonders of the Hill Country
Dr. David Hillis
Friday, September 29, 2023

Cool Activities, 5:30 - 6:40 PM
Located in Welch Grand Hallway

Austin Bat Refuge
Learn about Austin’s bats

Austin Reptile Service
See nonvenomous snakes.

Austin Wildlife Service
Pet Tortellini, the threatened Texas Tortoise.

Breeker Lab
Examine cool snail shells

Capital Area Master Naturalists
Visualize connections by making food webs.

Children's Research Center
Create you own bat craft

Colorado River Alliance
Interactive Enviroscape watershed model and Find Your Watershed

CRESSLE
Learn about ESI’s collaborative research on community resilience

David Hillis Laboratory
Meet native salamanders

Travis County Balcones Canyonlands Preserve
Touch and feel Hill Country treasures

Vertebrate Paleontology Laboratory
Explore fossils and learn about the diversity of animals, past and present, of central Texas.

Westcave Outdoor Discovery Center
Play “Match the Track”

UT Press
Check out Dr. Hillis’ new book: Armadillos to Ziziphus: A Naturalist in the Texas Hill Country

Check-in is from 5:30 - 6:40 outside Welch Hall Auditorium (Rm. 2.224). Please be in the auditorium by 6:50 p.m.
RECEIVE A STAMP FOR EACH

COOL ACTIVITY YOU VISIT!

Get FIVE STAMPS and receive a giveaway at the check-in tables